Hanover, October 12, N. S.

THE King having declared his Intention of going from hence for Holland in less than three Weeks, in order to embark for England, several of the Foreign Ministers are preparing for their Departure; and Count Kinsky, Ambassadour from the Emperour, took his Leave on Monday last of his Majesty, and set out Yesterday Morning for Vienna.

Hague, Oct. 14, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland will separate To-morrow: The Answer they expected from the Allies against the Emperour, upon the last Propositions of Peace, is not yet arrived. We have Advices from the Body of Forces commanded by Count Seckendorf, dated the 9th Instant: He was then at Simmeren, and proposed to march on the 10th to Berncastle on the Moselle, having passed through the Honfruck without any Opposition from the French.

Whitehall, Aug. 29, 1735.

Whereas two anonymous Letters were lately sent to Mr. John Kerr, in Norris-street in the Hay-market, requiring him to lay Ten Pounds in a certain Place, and at the Time therein mentioned, and threatening, in case of Noncompliance, to burn his House, and to kill the first Person who should come out of his said House: And whereas on Tuesday last, the 26th Instant, in the Night-time, the House of Mr. Nicholas Read, Haberdasher, as the Corner of the same Street, in the Hay-Market, was attempted to be burnt, by putting Rags and Paper under the Door, and setting them on Fire by a Train of Gunpowder, which burnt Part of the Floor and Shop Door: Her Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Crimes, is pleased to promise her most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplices or Accomplices in either of the said Crimes, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Kerr doth hereby promise a Reward of Ten Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover the Person or Persons who sent the said Letters: And the said Nicholas Read doth also hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall discover the Person or Persons who attempted to burn his House: The said respective Sums to be paid by them upon the Conviction of the said Offenders, or any of them.

John Kerr.
